REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Management and Member of CSCA Capital Advisors, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of CSCA Capital Advisors, LLC (the "Company"), as of December 31, 2017, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statement"). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2017, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2015.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. Nature of business

Nature of Business

CSCA Capital Advisors, LLC (the "Company"), is a New York limited liability company. The Company is wholly-owned by CS Capital Advisors, LLC (the "Parent"). The Company is registered as a broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company provides certain advisory and consulting services on a fee basis, to corporations, REITs and others in connection with financial transactions including mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, leveraged buy-outs, joint ventures, reorganizations, recapitalizations and other extraordinary corporate transactions. The Company provides fairness opinion letters and valuations in conjunction with a broad range of financial transactions. The Company also acts as a co-manager on underwritten offerings of debt, preferred equity or equity-linked securities and an agent in the placement of securities. The Company is typically compensated on a fee for services basis, including opinion fees upon rendering opinions, placement agent fees for the placement of securities and its participation in the gross spread associated with underwritten offerings.

2. Summary of significant account policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Accounts Receivable, Advisory Fee and Underwriting Revenue

The Company carries its fees receivable at cost less an allowance for doubtful accounts. On a periodic basis, the Company evaluates its fees receivable and establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts, based on a history of past write-offs and collections and current credit conditions. There were no fees receivable and as a result no allowance for doubtful accounts was required at December 31, 2017.

Advisory fee revenues are recorded in accordance with the terms of the advisory agreements and, where applicable, recognized on a pro rata basis over the term of the respective agreements.

Underwriting fees include gains, losses and fees, net of underwriting expenses, arising from securities offerings in which the Company acts as an underwriter or agent. Underwriting fees are recognized when earned and realizable, typically when the securities offering closes.

2. Summary of significant account policies (continued)

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company, and treated as a disregarded entity for income tax reporting purposes. The Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") provides that any income or loss is passed through to the member for federal and state income tax purposes. Accordingly, the Company has not provided for state income taxes. The Company's Parent, who is also an LLC, files its income tax returns in the U.S. and various state and local jurisdictions. At December 31, 2017, management has determined that the Company had no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition. This determination will always be subject to ongoing reevaluation as facts and circumstances may require. The Company remains subject to U.S. federal, state and local income tax audits for all periods subsequent to 2014. The Company is subject to New York City unincorporated business tax. Approximately $79,000 of such tax was incurred during the year ended December 31, 2017 and is included in income tax expense in the statement of operations.

From time to time the Company does business with United States customers domiciled outside of New York City. The Company is subject to taxation in these other jurisdictions to the extent the Company's activity creates nexus in those jurisdictions. For the year ended December 31, 2017, the Company incurred income taxes of approximately $52,000 from other jurisdictions

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Cash and concentration of credit risk

The Company considers money market accounts in banks to be cash.

In the normal course of business, the Company maintains its cash balances in one financial institution, which exceed federally insured limits. The Company is subject to credit risk should the financial institution be unable to fulfill its obligations. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and management monitors the financial condition of the financial institution and does not anticipate any losses from this counterparty.

4. Related party transactions

Service Agreement and Due to/from Parent

Pursuant to a service agreement, the Parent provides various services and other operating assistance to the Company. These include professional services, physical premises, utilities, the use of fixed assets, travel, insurance, subscriptions, taxes, personnel and other general and administrative services. For the year ended December 31, 2017, the total amount incurred by the Company under this agreement was approximately $2,578,000. The Company paid approximately $2,059,000 in 2017 which includes approximately $192,000 of 2016 allocated expenses. The remainder of approximately $712,000 was a payable to the Parent at December 31, 2017.

4. Related party transactions (continued)

Minimum Tax Distributions

Pursuant to the Parent's Operating Agreement, the Parent's Board of Managers shall cause the Parent to make distributions on a quarterly basis to each member of the Parent. Such distribution shall aggregate an amount equal to at least fifty percent of such member's anticipated distributive share of the Parent's estimated taxable income for such quarter to the extent such income is attributable to allocation of net profit to such member. As net capital requirements permit, the Parent may call upon the Company to fund these obligations.

5. Concentration of revenue

During the year ended December 31, 2017 100% of the Company's revenues were from six customers.

6. Net capital requirement

The Company is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This Rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 and that equity capital may not be withdrawn if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2017, the Company's net capital was approximately $10,366,000 which was approximately $10,266,000 in excess of its minimum requirement of approximately $100,000.

7. Exemption from Rule 15c3-3

The Company does not hold customers' cash or securities and, therefore, has no obligations under SEC Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

8. Subsequent Events

On January 16, 2018 and on January 26, 2018, the Company made distributions of $6,000,000 and $2,232,092, respectively, to the Parent.

No other events or transactions subsequent to December 31, 2017 through the date these financial statements were issued would require recognition or disclosure in these financial statements.
